

A recent nationwide survey revealed that teenagers identify their household medicine cabinets as their main source for controlled substances.

Extensive environmental studies are showing an increase in the amounts of pharmaceutical components in our surface, ground and drinking waters.

Unwanted Pharmaceuticals:

The effects on human health, public safety and the environment – and the solutions for our region.

Join Us!

Thursday, December 5, 2013

9:30 am - 12:30 pm

Chula Vista Council Chambers

276 Fourth Avenue • Chula Vista, California 91910

Parking is available on Davidson or F Street near Fourth Avenue

CITY OF CHULA VISTA

Please join us to identify solutions to a region-wide problem that affects our physical and environmental health.

For more information, call (619) 585-5766.

Featured Speakers:

Sherrie Rubin
H.O.P.E. Foundation

The H.O.P.E. Foundation provides support to families needing early intervention in overcoming addiction to prescription drugs and heroin. Sherrie will share the gripping story of her son Aaron.

Ban Yahya
Professor of Environmental Technology at Southwestern College

Prescribing a Solution, pharmaceuticals and our water quality.

Heidi Sanborn
CA Product Stewardship Council

Unwanted Pharmaceuticals; Local and State-wide Efforts to Address the Unwanted Pharmaceuticals Problem
Heidi has been a leader in the solid waste industry in California for 22 years; working with industry, government and the public to reduce waste, improve product design and recyclability, and implement cost-effectiveness policies to protect the health of our communities.